Día de Los Reyes (King's Day), January 6, 2018

Día de los Reyes or the King's Day, is the big day for children in the Dominican Republic. It is the day celebrated for their Christmas. This day is celebrated to represent when the three Wise Men or Kings came to give precious gifts to the newborn King, Jesus. Luis and I belong to a very lovely and loving church, but most of the members are poor and from humble beginnings. This year we wanted to be the ones to give each young person a special gift, and that it would be an appropriate one for their age. It would otherwise be a challenge for their parents to provide such a gift. We had a wonderful celebration together after the church service. To see the kids' glee on their faces when they unwrapped their gifts was well worth our efforts. We had lots of help buying and wrapping the gifts together, with the church leadership.

Below are several pictures that tell the story of our afternoon together. Luis and I thank you for your generous contributions to our ministry that made this day with the youth possible.

With Love and Gratitude,

Luis and Julie
