Below are a few photos of a typical afternoon that Luis and I spend with the kids on the ball field. Their trainer has become a close friend of ours. He gives us complete freedom to talk with the youth about the Bible, our spiritual journey, or any other subject the kids bring up and ask us about.

In one of the pictures below are four boys whose families we have frequently been visiting. The young fellow on my left, Miguel, has become especially interested in the Christian life. One day he asked us if we would like to visit his family and meet the rest of his family members. We felt honored to receive such an invitation. We began visiting and we have had many opportunities to talk about how we ended up living in the Dominican Republic, among many other subjects, including spiritual life. We have also learned much from them about life in our town, as well as life here in general. Below are Luis and me with Miguel with his parents, although he also has four other brothers and sisters.

His cousins sometimes join us.

How grateful we are for your generous involvement with us. You are a part of these important opportunities.

With Much Love & Gratitude,

Luis & Julie
